1. If elected, how would you proactively and consistently engage with Caribbean-American constituents, groups, local leaders, and organizations in your constituency?

I am deeply committed to engaging Caribbean-American constituents with consistency, respect, and partnership. If elected, I will maintain ongoing dialogue with Caribbean leaders, churches, business owners, and community organizations—ensuring your voices help shape policy decisions, economic opportunities, and community investments in Prince George's County. My approach is simple: I will show up, listen, collaborate, and deliver results. I will work to expand small business support, strengthen youth pathways programs, and celebrate the rich cultural contributions of the Caribbean community throughout our district. Your endorsement would mean such much to me in this race.

2. How would your office address barriers Caribbean immigrants face when accessing public services such as healthcare, safe, affordable housing, education or social programs that disproportionately affect them?

As an immigrant myself, I understand firsthand the barriers Caribbean families face in accessing healthcare, housing, education, and social programs. My office will partner with community leaders, churches, and local organizations to provide trusted, culturally informed guidance, expand language access, and bring services directly into our neighborhoods. I am committed to ensuring every family has equal opportunity to thrive and fully access the resources they need.

3. How do you ensure culturally responsive services for Caribbean-American residents across agencies (e.g., health, education, law enforcement, etc.)?

As an immigrant and lover of the Caribbean community, I know that culture shapes how people experience services. I will ensure culturally responsive services by partnering with Caribbean leaders and organizations to provide guidance to agencies, advocate for multilingual resources, and implement training on cultural awareness for staff across health, education, and law enforcement. My goal is that every resident feels seen, respected, and supported when accessing public services.

4. What initiatives will you lead and/or support that benefit Caribbean-American small business owners and workers, particularly in industries where they are heavily represented?

I would champion initiatives that expand opportunity and economic growth for Caribbean-American entrepreneurs and workers. This includes creating targeted small business workshops, providing access to county contracts, supporting mentorship and networking programs, and advocating for workforce development in industries where Caribbean-Americans are strongly represented. My goal is to help businesses thrive, create jobs, and strengthen generational wealth within our community.

5. What support would you provide for Caribbean-American students and parents, including language assistance and help navigating the school system?

I will ensure Caribbean-American students and parents have the support they need in school. This includes providing language assistance, free resources, clear guidance on enrollment and programs, and resources to help families navigate the school system. I would also work with schools and community organizations to create mentorship, tutoring, and engagement opportunities that reflect the cultural and educational needs of Caribbean families.

6. How would you advance partnerships with Caribbean-American community organizations to promote mental health, chronic disease prevention, or other wellness initiatives?

I will actively partner with Caribbean-American community organizations, faith groups, and cultural centers to promote wellness programs that meet the community where they are. This includes co-hosting mental health workshops, health screenings, and educational workshops on chronic disease prevention. By combining culturally informed approaches with trusted local voices, we can make wellness resources accessible, reduce stigma, and empower families to take charge of their health.

7. How will you build trust and conduct robust oversight on local, law enforcement to protect the rights, security, and safety of Caribbean-American residents?

I will build trust by ensuring Caribbean-American residents have a seat at the table in shaping law enforcement policies. This includes creating regular community forums, strengthening civilian oversight, and advocating for cultural competency and bias training for officers. My focus will be on transparency, accountability, and collaboration so that every resident feels safe, respected, and confident that their rights are protected.

8. What programs, funding opportunities, or policy efforts will you champion that are aimed at improving outcomes for Caribbean-American communities?

I will champion programs and policies that expand economic opportunity, support education, and strengthen health and wellness in Caribbean-American communities. This includes funding for small business development, scholarships and mentorship for students, culturally informed health initiatives, and resources that increase access to affordable housing and social services. My focus is on initiatives that create lasting impact and help families and businesses flourish.
