C-PAC Leadership meets with DC Council Chairman Phil Mendelson

L- Council chairman Mendleson, Michael Gardiner (C-PAC Treasurer), Chris Gardiner (C-PAC Co-Founder), Dr Goulda Downer (C-PAC President)

Caribbean American Political Action (C-PAC) leaders met with District of Columbia Council Chairman Phil Mendelson to discuss issues of importance to the Caribbean American community and the broader District. The meeting focused on strengthening community engagement, expanding economic and educational opportunities, ongoing support for the mayor's office on Caribbean community affairs, and addressing concerns affecting immigrant and underserved populations. As a result of the discussion, both parties agreed to maintain an open line of communication, explore areas for future collaboration, and identify actionable steps to advance community priorities through ongoing engagement with the Council and other key stakeholders. September 1,2026
